Writing L

Date

To parents
Before your child begins writing, please read the words on the page and ask your child to repeat the words after you. If your child can recognize the letters, it might be fun to have him or her tell you the name of each letter, and to have your child say the sound of the letter aloud while he or she traces it. If your child is still learning the alphabet, you should tell him or her the name of the letter and teach him or her its sound to say while tracing.
